4: Underwriting

We will apply underwriting to you and your dependants covered on your medical scheme as follows:

Pre-existing conditions exclusions

1. General rule

You and your dependants covered on your medical scheme will not be entitled to claim for a period of 12 months from the start date of your policy for any medical condition where, in the 12 months before your policy start date, you:

- received medical advice, diagnosis, care, or treatment, or
- could reasonably have been expected to receive such advice, diagnosis, care, or treatment.

2. Pregnancy

If you or your dependants covered on your medical scheme fall pregnant before the start date of your policy, this will be regarded as a pre-existing condition. All pregnancy and birth-related claims will therefore be excluded for 12 months from the start date of your policy.

3. Continuation of cover

If, immediately before the start date of this policy, you were insured under another gap cover policy with similar benefits:

- the pre-existing condition waiting period will only apply to the unexpired portion of the waiting period from your previous policy, and
- the full 12-month waiting period will still apply to any benefit not covered under your previous policy.

5: Your beneficiary details

Your Admed Gap Cover policy has two benefits that will pay your nominated beneficiary an amount of money should you die as a result of a violent crime or an accident. In the event of your death while you are covered on the policy, the payout will be paid to a nominated beneficiary only if you have nominated a beneficiary at the time of joining cover. If you have not nominated a beneficiary, the payout will be made to your estate.
